Who is HEAR?

HEAR is a group of Psychologist and Therapist, Musicians, Singers and dancers whose mission is to enhance healing through performance through performance.

our audiences through several stages of the of the African and African American experience by utilizing African Drum, Praise songs, African American Folk Songs and Spirituals. Our message is positive, informative and promotes healing and unity.

Services

We also offer a wide range of cultural services to community, educational institutions, non-profit organizations, corporations and other special events. Contact us for a free consultation on how we can become your therapeutic resource.

We provide professional facilitation and rhythms in environments were physical and mental challenges are needed.

Group Therapy

Do you work with children or adolescents who are socially challenged? We have devised special programs to cater for clients with different backgrounds. We focus on connecting people though the medium of drumming and getting them to work harmoniously together. It's all about integration and connection. We have had success in San Jose's High Schools and Juvenile Corrections Facility.

Services Con't.

Aged Care Facilities

A great way to bring a group together in a fun filled session where everyone can participate and make great music. Particularly popular with Grandparents and Grandchildren play dates where everyone plays together.

Drumming for Special Needs and Disabilities Workshops

We have experience working with children and adults with all kinds of abilities. Whether it be a one off treat for your team or an ongoing long term program. We have drums for them to play and we will bring lots of other shakers. We can also African dance if some of the participants are up for it.

Corporate Team Building

African Drumming Workshops are proven and effective, fun filled team building sessions designed to improve productivity in your workplace. By creating a relaxed environment, which inspires group participation and synergy, African Drumming breaks down social barriers in order to allow participants to work efficiently and harmoniously together, with increased focus and reduced stress

We understand the healing power of music and the therapeutic value of drumming. Please let us know how we can be of service to you.

We perform healing songs such as "Ara Mi Le" written and performed by Babatunde Olatunji as he was fighting his own battle with cancer, which means "I am very healthy"
